

OXFORD SUMMER TOUR 2014
August 26-27

Tuesday Aug 26

8:00 am – Depart Woodstock Quality Inn
Gay Lea Dairy Heritage Museum, Aylmer
Ridgetown College – Plot tours:

Dr. Laura Van Eerd - cover crops, soil health, long-term research
Dr. David Hooker - long term tillage, crop rotation and fertilizer trials
Dr. Milad Eskandar - soybean breeding and genetics

BBQ picnic

Arrive at Leamington Days Inn

Meet OSCIA Past President Henry Denotter, travel to the Canadian Transportation Museum and Heritage Village, Kingsville

Wood fired stone oven pizza dinner and wine tasting at Muscedere Vineyards, Harrow

Return to hotel

Wednesday Aug 27

Greenhouse tour

Canadian Historical Aircraft Association – restoration of a Lancaster and a Mosquito airplane, several Other restored aircraft, Windsor Airport

Maizex Seeds, Tilbury – lunch and plot tours

Heeman's, London – 300,000 everbearing strawberry plants (7 acres of raised beds) and more

Return to Woodstock

$180.00 per person based on double occupancy includes all meals, tour fees, transportation and accommodations. Deadline to register is August 19, 2014. Contact tour committee chairman Adam Garfat 519- 533-3309 garfata8430@hotmail.com or Cathy Dibble 519-463-9737 cdibble@ontariosoilcrop.org for more information or to sign up. Payment can be made via credit card at oscia.wildapricot.org/events or send a check to Oxford Soil & Crop at 766977 Twp Road 5, Drumbo NOJ 1G0